Overview

A total renovation of the Esther-Bejarano-Haus (formerly Grandweg) residential complex was completed in October 2020.

Located in Lokstedt, the residence offers a central location and at the same time enough peace and silence to study. Equipped with numerous practice rooms, the residence is perfect for music students, who are given priority admission.

Shared facilities
On three floors, groups of residents share a fully equipped communal kitchen. Showers and toilets are provided on each floor. Coin-operated washing machines and a drying room are located in the basement. There is also a bar, which is run by the residents themselves.

Special features of the house are the numerous isolated music rooms, most of which are equipped with pianos. External music students can also hire a music practice room (any enquiries should be directed to the property management services). A room with a grand piano for practising and concerts completes the facilities for music students.

Shopping and infrastructure (supermarket, post office, bank, etc.)
Shopping facilities (bank, bakery, supermarket) and MetroBus 5 (about 12 minutes to the university and with bus 115 to Hamburg University of Music and Theatre) are easily accessible.
