Standard application procedure

Application requirements
Those entitled to apply are all enrolled and future enrolled students of Dresden institutes of higher education associated to the Studentwerk Dresden, who have not yet obtained a degree.

If places are available (mainly in the summer semester) doctoral candidates, postgraduate students as well as interns (student apprentices) from other higher education institutes can apply. These contracts are always short-term tenancy agreements effective until the beginning of following winter semester (30 September) and cannot be extended.

Residence authorisation for university candidates:
approval document ("Zulassungsbescheid"), except for restriction free courses of studies at the TU Dresden: "Certificate of residence authorisation" (printable after your successful online inscription; "last page of the document"). Candidates holding a certificate of residence authorisation can chose an earlier date of move-in than the beginning of the semester.

Residence authorisation for students who are already studying in Dresden:
Certificate of inscription for the semester in which you apply for tenancy or Certificate of inscription for the current semester and a proof of payment of the fees for the semester in which you apply for tenancy.

Application deadline
None. You can apply as soon as you have received the residence authorisation for the semester in which you apply for tenancy.

Application
The application has to be filled in https://www.studentenwerk-dresden.de/english/wohnen/antrag/.

Additional information
For students from other German institutes of higher education or foreign students needing accommodation in Dresden for a short period only, be it for a placement, part-time course or for other reasons, rooms are available in the International Guest House http://www.studentenwerk-dresden.de/english/wohnen/gaestehaus.html.
