

Study Visits by Groups of Foreign Students • DAAD

Overview

Objective

The goals of a study trip are:

- to establish and cultivate contacts between German and foreign universities
- to impart subject-related knowledge by arranging corresponding visits at not less than two German universities, subject-related tours and information meetings
- to encourage subject-specific contact with German students and researchers
- to enable foreign students to gain a better understanding of economic, political and cultural life in Germany

Who can apply?

University teachers from a public and state-recognised foreign university are eligible to apply.

What is supported?

Study visits for groups of a maximum of 15 students accompanied by one university teacher. Individual doctoral candidates may also be funded after consultation with the DAAD. The groups visit at least two German universities where they participate in the academic programme.

Duration of funding

At least 7 days and a maximum of 12 days

Please note: There are special conditions for applicants from France, Great Britain, Poland, the Russian Federation and the United States. Further information is available at the respective branch office:
