Academic admission requirements

We are happy to welcome new students with the following qualifications:

- successfully completed university studies with a Master's degree, "Magister", "Diplom", or equivalent degree pertinent to the learning sciences
- good or excellent degree from previous studies
- very good knowledge of methodology and research skills
- very good skills in oral and written English
- research interest in the field of learning sciences

For the online application, the following documents are required:

1. MCLS recommendation letter issued by an MCLS member
2. one reference letter issued by a previous professor/instructor (must not be your potential supervisor)
3. a certified copy of the Bachelor's and Master's certificate (or equivalent) and of the respective transcripts of records
4. research proposal
5. letter of motivation
6. CV with up-to-date information
7. proof of English proficiency

Important note: The MCLS recommendation letter (point 1) and the reference letter (point 2) are two independent criteria! A complete application comprises two separate letters, issued by two different professors (one from a potential supervisor and one from a previous professor). The documents must be uploaded to the online application platform by the professors using the upload form by 15 March (They will get an e-mail notification with the request to upload the respective document).

Language requirements

Instruction and research are carried out in English. If your native language is not English, you are required to take a test of English proficiency (for example, the Test of English as a Foreign Language [TOEFL] or the International English Language Testing System [IELTS]) and enclose a photocopy of your test results with your application. Previous studies conducted in English are also accepted. The minimal level of English proficiency that is required is B2 CEFR.
