Description/content	The Master of Science degree course in Evolution and Ecology is designed to provide high-level qualifications based on the systematic and critical acquisition and augmentation of scientific knowledge. The focus of the course is on the evolution of organisms and the consequences of their interactions with the environment. The course provides instruction on the origin, evolution, and conservation of complex biological systems in time (current – historical) and space (local – global). It integrates processes from the genetic level through the organism to the ecological communities. The curriculum covers synthetic fundamental principles as well as applied, environmentally relevant aspects.

Services

Possibility of finding part-time employment Students may find jobs as graduate research assistants for projects of the Department of Biology.

Accommodation

Accommodation is available through the Student Services organisation (“Studierendenwerk“) or on the private market. Rooms in student accommodation cost approx. 200 to 400 EUR per month. As Tübingen is a very attractive place to live, private accommodation is more expensive and can take some effort to find. To make sure you find a suitable place to live, you should start looking as early as possible.

We recommend you apply for student accommodation through the “Studierendenwerk” at the same time that you apply for admission to the Master’s programme (<https://www.my-stuwe.de/en/housing/halls-of-residence-tuebingen/> and <https://www.my-stuwe.de/en/housing/faqs/>) and send in a copy of your notification of admission as soon as you have received it. (Your application won’t be processed before the “Studierendenwerk” has received proof of your admission.) For further information, check out the “Studierendenwerk” pages on housing in Tübingen (<https://www.my-stuwe.de/en/housing/housing-infos/>).

General services and support for international students and doctoral candidates

The university offers a number of “onboarding” services for newly arriving international students. These include:

- a help desk
- a buddy programme
- an advisory programme: “How to Study at the University of Tübingen”
- a wide range of social activities offered by student groups

For further information, please refer to: <https://uni-tuebingen.de/en/182071> (onboarding for degree-seeking students).

A student initiative offers a buddy programme and a wide range of social activities during the orientation week and throughout the semester (www.studit-tuebingen.de/en/).

Furthermore, there is the Office for Advising and Admission of International Students (<http://www.uni-tuebingen.de/en/90787>).
