Lutherstadt Wittenberg, which is seat of the Institute for German Language and Culture, is part of the UNESCO World Cultural Heritage. The famous reformer Martin Luther lived, taught, and wrote his 95 Theses here. We have been offering language courses and regional studies in the field of German as a foreign language for international students, graduates, and academics for more than 25 years. We also carry out study abroad programmes for partner universities of the Martin Luther University.

MARTIN-LUTHER UNIVERSITÄT
HALLE-WITTENBERG

University location

Lutherstadt Wittenberg is one of the most visited towns in Saxony-Anhalt. Explore the atmosphere of the historic old town, characterised by well-preserved renaissance buildings. The numerous cafés and restaurants scattered along the narrow streets offer culinary delights. Experience culture at the museums and different events. The Elbe, parks, and bike paths invite you to relax. Vibrant cities such as Berlin and Leipzig can easily be reached by train.
