The Hochschule für Wirtschaft und Recht (HWR Berlin) is a public university of applied sciences. The university offers a highly practical and hands-on approach to teaching, and all academic staff have real-world experience in the subjects that they teach. HWR Berlin is the third-largest specialist institution in business administration and economics in Germany; it is also highly ranked for its international focus, thanks to its wide network of global partnerships.

University location

The German capital is renowned for its flourishing cultural scene, fascinating history, and a way of life that seamlessly combines a fast-paced environment with a relaxed atmosphere. It is a city of contrasts: between East and West, historical buildings and modern architecture, and the traditional and the modern. All of these distinctive qualities make Berlin a fascinating place to discover.
