Description/content	The international Bachelor's programme in History aims to introduce students from Germany (or German-speaking countries) and France (or French-speaking countries) to knowledge and skills in history. Special emphasis lies on specific theoretical and methodological approaches of academic research in history in both Germany and France. The fields of study comprise all central epochs of European and global history. One central feature of the programme is the explicit intercultural dimension: German- and French-speaking participants complete the programme side by side. By working in pairs, they can assist each other with language problems as well as in practical matters. The Bachelor's programme refers to the binational Master's programme in History, which is also organised by Bielefeld University and Université de Paris Cité.

Course Details

Course organisation	Students follow the general Bachelor's study programme in History (or licence in history) of both universities (see https://www.uni-bielefeld.de and https://www.u-paris.fr). This programme comprises lectures, seminars, and tutorials which deal with methods and theories in history, transnational approaches to historical matters, and intercultural questions. Following the first and the second year of the programme, participants take part in a summer school programme in Paris that gives students the opportunity to extend their historical and cultural knowledge and improve their ability to give oral presentations on specific matters. » PDF Download
A Diploma supplement will be issued	Yes
International elements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Language training provided</li><li>• International comparisons and thematic reference to the international context</li><li>• Specialist literature in other languages</li></ul>
Integrated internships	Internships are not obligatory, but they are strongly recommended. "Deutsch-Französische Hochschule" (https://www.dfh-ufa.org/) regularly offers specific internships that aim at improving intercultural abilities and giving insight into the European dimensions of various professional fields. Further offers are announced via the internal communication network of the study programme.
Special promotion / funding of the programme	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Franco-German University (FGU)</li></ul>

Costs / Funding

Tuition fees per semester in EUR	None
Semester contribution	Since Bielefeld University does not charge tuition fees, every student only has to pay a social fee. The social fee includes the contribution to the social ticket for free public transport in the city and area of Bielefeld and on regional trains and buses in North-Rhine Westphalia for the whole semester. The current semester contribution is approximately 300 EUR.
Costs of living	Costs for studying in Germany are relatively high due to the living expenses. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Rent in a room in student halls of residence or a private student hall, in a room or flat comes to approx. 280 EUR per month.</li><li>• The expected costs for student health insurance and other medical fees are about 80 EUR per month.</li></ul>

- Depending on your lifestyle, you might spend about 150 EUR on food each month.
- Altogether, monthly costs for food, clothes, leisure activities, social fees, travel expenses, telephone bills, and the other mentioned expenses add up to approx. 850 EUR.

There are several ways of cutting expenses in Bielefeld. For example, it is possible to rent a room in a student residence for about 230 EUR, and a meal at the student canteen (Mensa) costs only about 2.60 EUR.

Funding opportunities within the university	No
