Requirements / Registration

Teaching language

- German

Language level of course

- German: All levels

Language requirements

Summer@Uni-Mainz does not require students to speak German before arrival. A basic understanding of English is helpful.

Before arriving in Germany, students will be asked to assess their current level of German. Students will then take a placement test shortly after arrival to determine what kind of language course they will be placed in – beginner, intermediate, or advanced.

Services

Is accommodation organised?

Accommodation is arranged by the organiser.

Type of accommodation

All students who sign up by 30 January 2020 are guaranteed places in the dormitories provided on campus or close to campus. Students who sign up for the Summer@Uni-Mainz programme after January will be placed in additional dormitories or with host families.

Meals

Meals are not included in the fee for the course programme. However, each student will receive a card for the use in the campus dining facilities, where meals can be purchased relatively inexpensively. Students will also have access to kitchens in their dorms.

Is a social and leisure programme offered?

Yes

Description of social and leisure programme

The social and leisure programme consists of the following:
film nights (German, international and historical films)
sport programme
“Stammtisch” – weekly "regulars' table"

A cultural programme including excursions and cultural activities complements the social and leisure programme outlined above.
