

Appendix 1

Conditions for eligibility

for the Programme “German-Bangladesh- University Cooperation in the Textile and Clothing Sector 2018-2019”

General

The DAAD grant is forwarded to the beneficiary in the form of a grant contract. The DAAD grant is forwarded to the Bangladeshi partner by the recipient of the grant in the form of a forwarding contract.

Applicable expenditure

All project-related expenditure incurred in implementing the eligible actions referred to in the invitation to tender shall be eligible. The expenditures are to be assigned to the following expenditure types in the financing plan and can be comprehensibly described in accordance with the requirements of the completing aids (see Overview of Help Texts in the DAAD Portal in the Help Centre).

Personnel for project implementation and support

Use of scientific employees, scientific and student assistants, and other staff who have an employment relationship with the applicant institution or partner institution.

Personnel in Germany

Scientific staff up to half (0.5) an EC 13 position for the total duration of the grant

Personnel abroad

Personnel abroad, e.g. scientific employees (expenditure not to be attributed to the foreign institution)

Technical means

Expenditure on the organisation of events, workshops, summer schools, participation in coordination meetings in Germany and in countries of the region e.g. India, Cambodia, Myanmar, Thailand, Vietnam etc. and conferences, public relations work

Fees

for guest speakers, conference leaders, moderators, interpreters for translation, temporary use of assistants and/or tutors

Mobility project staff

- Mobility expenses for German university students in Germany and countries of the region (India/Cambodia/Thailand/Myanmar/Vietnam, etc.) according to the German Federal Revenue Law (BRKG) and International Travel Costs Ordinance (ARV)
- Mobility expenditure for Bangladeshi University Students from Bangladesh to Germany up to 700 euros or the region (India/Cambodia/Thailand/Myanmar/Vietnam etc.) up to 620 euros

Residence project staff

Living expenditures for German and Bangladeshi nationals in Germany (amounting to 96 euros/day) and in the region (India/Cambodia/Thailand/Myanmar/Vietnam, etc.) (in the amount of the foreign travel allowance (ATG) / foreign accommodation allowance (AÜG) acc. Appendix Foreign Travel Expenses Ordinance (ARVVwV) BRKG).

Equipment in Germany and abroad

- Consumer goods
- Economic goods: teaching and learning materials
- Room rental
- Printing/publications/advertising & public relations: creating and printing brochures and flyers
- External services: setting up a communication platform
- Miscellaneous: participation fees for conferences, visa fees, and vaccination costs, expenses for insurance

Supported personsMobility supported persons

- Mobility expenditure for study and research stays Bangladeshi graduates/teachers in Germany up to 700 euros. ...
- Mobility expenditure for German graduates/teachers/university lecturers in the region (India, Cambodia, Myanmar, Thailand, Vietnam, etc.)

up to 525 euros/650 euros Germany/India:

up to 1,050 euros/1,300 euros Germany/Cambodia and Germany/Myanmar up to 725 euros/900 euros Germany/Thailand

up to 775 euros/950 euros Germany/Vietnam

- Mobility expenses for short-term stays for Bangladeshi university staff (professors, scientists, university administrators, etc.) up to 700 euros in the German partner university and up to 620 euros in the region (India, Cambodia, Myanmar, Thailand, Vietnam, etc.) .
- Mobility expenses for short-term stays for German university staff (professors, scientists, university administrators, etc.) in the region (India, Cambodia, Myanmar, Thailand, Vietnam, etc.)

up to 650 euros Germany/India:

up to 1,300 euros Germany/Cambodia and Germany/Myanmar up to 900 euros Germany/Thailand up to 950 euros Germany/Vietnam

Stay for supported persons

- Living expenses for study and research stays Bangladeshi graduates / / teachers in Germany 96 euros/day.
Living expenses for German graduates/teachers/university lecturers in the region (India, Cambodia, Myanmar, Thailand, Vietnam, etc.) in the amount of the ATG/AÜG (acc. Appendix Foreign Travel Expenses Ordinance (ARVVwV) BRKG).
- (The contribution to health insurance must also be paid from the DAAD rates. It is imperative to inform the foreign guests of the need for adequate insurance. The German university can book a more affordable group insurance through the DAAD.)
- Living expenses for short-term stays for Bangladeshi university staff (professors, scientists, university administrators, etc.) at the German partner universities (up to 22 days) 96 euros/day.
- Living expenses for short-term stays for Bangladeshi university staff (professors, scientists, university administrators, etc.) at the German partner universities (23 days and more)
2150 Euro per month (full Professor); 1000 Euros per months (PhD students); 750 Euros per month (graduates)

Living expenses for short-term stays for German university staff (professors, scientists, university administrators, etc.) in the region (India, Cambodia, Myanmar, Thailand, Vietnam, etc.) in the amount of ATG/AÜG (acc. Appendix Foreign Travel Expenses Ordinance (ARVVwV) BRKG).