

Conditions of participation for the matchmaking workshop in Mexico in February 2021 for the programme "German–Mexican University Collaboration to Promote Academic Exchange between Forensic Doctors in Mexico and Germany"

General information

Please submit a CV of the person who is to take part in the matchmaking workshop and describe their role within your university.

In addition, please submit a sketch of the planned research project and the university collaboration as well as a description of its feasibility within your university.

On the basis of the documents submitted, DAAD, together with GIZ, will select and invite those people who are eligible for the project.

Eligible expenditure

If an invitation has been issued and you have travelled to the matchmaking workshop, DAAD will reimburse you upon submission of individual receipts:

- Expenses for mobility (travel and flight, 2nd class) from the place of residence to the venue and back as well as expenses for the stay at the venue.

Note: DAAD reserves the right to commission an event agency for the selected participants to organise and carry out all or part of the trip (international flights, transport in Mexico, accommodation, meals, etc.).

Depending on the global situation with regard to the COVID-19 pandemic, the matchmaking workshop may be held virtually. The selected participants will be informed of this in good time in advance.
