

Helmut-Schmidt-Programme (Master’s Scholarships for Public Policy and Good Governance) Call for applications 2021

What are the objectives of the programme?	This programme is designed to further qualify future leaders in politics, law, economics and administration according to the principles of good governance and to prepare them in a practice-oriented course for their professional life. Very good graduates with a first university degree get the chance to obtain a master’s degree in disciplines that are of special relevance to the social, political and economic development of their home country. The knowledge and experience acquired in Germany should enable the scholarship holders to later contribute to the establishment of democratically oriented economic and social systems aimed at overcoming social tensions. With this programme, DAAD intends to support the good governance and civil society structures in selected partner countries and regions.
Who can apply?	The scholarship programme is open to graduates from developing countries (see list of countries) in the field of social sciences, political sciences, law, economics and in public administration.
Target group	The programme is open for very well qualified graduates with a first university degree (bachelor or equivalent) who want to actively contribute to the social and economic development of their home countries or regions. It is offered both for young graduates without professional experience and for mid-career professionals.
What is fundable?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scholarship of monthly 850 € for selected master’s programmes at German institutions of higher education listed below. • The study programmes are usually starting in Sep/Oct 2021 and are taught in German and/or English. • contributions to health insurance in Germany • appropriate travel allowance • study and research subsidy • monthly rent subsidy where applicable • allowances for spouses and/or children where applicable • 6-months-German language course from April 2021 up to the end of September 2021. The language course takes place at selected institutes in Germany and usually not at the universities of the selected master’s programmes. The language course is compulsory also for those who attend a master’s course taught in English. Due to its blended-learning-concept the following special conditions are laid down to finance the study programme “Analysis and design of social protection systems”: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • During the online semester in your home country or another developing country DAAD provides a sur-place-rate of 500 EUR.
