

„In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme“ Ghana

Call for Scholarship Applications 2022 at West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI)

Funded by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ)

Application Closing Date at DAAD (for pre-selected candidates only): 15th June 2021

Programme Objectives

The programme aims at fostering strong, internationally oriented higher education systems in Sub-Sahara Africa with the capacity to contribute to sustainable development. To this end, scholarships are granted for development-related Master or doctoral studies for individuals who plan to pursue a career in teaching and / or research at a higher education institution in Sub-Sahara Africa.

By training future academic and professional leaders, the programme contributes to the following long-term impacts:

- Qualified professionals' involvement in the solution of development-related problems in Sub-Sahara Africa
- Graduates strengthening education and research in Sub-Sahara Africa
- Structural strengthening and regional networking of partner institutions and partner universities

To achieve these long-term impacts, the following outcomes have been formulated as programme objectives:

Programme objective 1: Graduates have qualified to take over responsible positions in their, or for their, region of origin

Programme objective 2: The participation of women and underprivileged groups is reinforced

Programme objective 3: Organizational, financial and personal capacities of partner institutions are strengthened

As part of the „In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme“ DAAD offers scholarships for PhD studies. The programme is funded by the German Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and aims at university staff in the first line, without neglecting the public sector demand of academically trained personnel.

The target group for scholarships are postgraduates from Sub-Sahara Africa with a Master's degree if applying for a doctoral programme who want to pursue PhD courses, either

- in their home country

(In-Country scholarships are aimed at students who study in their home country or in the country for which they have a residence permit.)

- or -

- in another Sub-Saharan country

(In-Region scholarships are aimed at students who want to participate in a study programme in a country of their home region (here: Sub-Sahara Africa /outside their home country).

It has been agreed upon that DAAD cooperates with West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI) by offering up to 3 In-Country and 6 In-Region scholarships for PhD studies at West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI) for the intake 2022.

The awarding of scholarships will be subject to the provision of funds.

Application requirements

Applicants

- must have successfully completed generally a two-year university degree with above average results (at least: Second Class/Upper Division)
- must clearly show motivation and strong commitment
- must have thorough knowledge of the language of instruction
- must have generally completed their last university degree not more than 6 years ago at the time of application
- must be nationals or permanent resident of a Sub-Saharan country
- should generally be a) staff member of a public university, b) candidate considered for teaching or research staff recruitment, c) from the public sector and/or d) Alumni of the DAFI-programme

Female applicants and candidates from less privileged regions or groups are especially encouraged to participate in the programme.

Scholarships are initially granted for one year and can be extended to a maximum of the regular period of study upon receipt of an application for extension. Scholars must demonstrate satisfactory progress before an extension is granted.

Eligible fields

The In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme supports studies in subject areas with strong relevance to national development.

The scholarships at West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI) are available in the following field:

- Plant Breeding

Place of tenure

WACCI – West African Centre for Crop Improvement, University of Ghana, School of Agriculture, College of Basic and Applied Sciences, PMB 30, Legon, Accra, Ghana

Duration and Commencement

Duration of the standard period of study and start date according to the agreement between the host institution and the DAAD:

- For the PhD programme, the duration is generally 4 years and is usually starting in February 2022.

Please note that the maximum duration of the scholarship is based on the time that is left until the scholarship holder has reached the regular period of studies in that programme; i.e., if you apply for a DAAD scholarship starting in your second year of studies of a three-year programme, the maximum duration of the scholarship will be two years.

Application and Selection Procedure

The application process contains two steps. Please be aware of the two application deadlines.

First step:

Applicants must apply for their studies at West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI) using the contacts and the method that is prescribed by the institution. West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI) has set its own deadlines.

Additionally, once you submit your application to West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI), please send a short notification to DAAD that you have applied with the subject "Your Surname_First name_WACCI" to the email address of the DAAD contact person given below.

Please note: In some countries in Sub-Saharan Africa, a document from the Qualifications Authority must be submitted for admission to the universities (e.g. from SAQA in South Africa). Please note that the application for these documents may take long and that it is the applicant's responsibility to get informed at an early stage in order to receive the documents from the respective authorities in time.

West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI) will screen, pre-select (according to DAAD selection criteria) and short-list the applicants. A detailed report consisting of the shortlisting procedure, the entire list of applicants, the ranked shortlist and the shortlisting panel members will also be availed to DAAD. The ranked shortlist will contain preferably triple (at least double) the number of scholarships that have been attributed to the institution.

DAAD reserves the right of final selection.

Second step:

West Africa Centre for Crop Improvement (WACCI) will provide the shortlisted candidates with the link to the DAAD-Portal. Only the pre-selected candidates are asked to log into the DAAD portal, register themselves and submit a DAAD application. DAAD Deadline: 15th June 2021.

Documents to be submitted (in English or German)

- DAAD application form duly filled in (available in the DAAD-Portal)
- Hand signed curriculum vitae (please use the European specimen form at <http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu>), including a list of publications (if applicable).
- Two recommendation letters by university teachers
- Letter of admission for the host institution
- Certified copies of university degree certificates including transcripts
- Letter of motivation and a timetable (if applicable: mentioning the planned research stay in Germany, see "Additional benefits")
- Copy of the passport
- If applicable, information on the UNHCR registration as refugee
- Declaration of acceptance from the academic supervisor
- Detailed and precise PhD proposal, including detailed work and timetable (if applicable: mentioning the planned research stay in Germany, see "Additional benefits")
- Abstract of the proposal on one page (please include name and title of proposal)
